Strike In Britain A Serious Problem

London.—Though it would be premature to abandon hope of a settlement of the railway strike, the expectation of some arrangement resulting from the numerous conferences between the labor representatives and the government, and the position is again grave. James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, announced that the efforts to reopen the negotiations had collapsed, owing to government refusal to go beyond its previous offer, but appended that other unions than the railwaymen were continuing their efforts at mediation, but, while the strike continued, the railroad men would do nothing to hinder mediation.

After a conference of the executive of the railwaymen and transport workers, Mr. Thomas issued a statement in which he said:

"Rumors of a settlement are incorrect. The negotiations have broken down, inasmuch as the government offer does not differ from that of September 26.

The government is increasing its organization to ensure service and under emergency powers have closed Regent's park to the public, and are using the park as a clearing center for market produce, frozen meat and fish, in the same way that Hyde Park is being used for the distribution of milk.

Both the Prime Minister and Secretary Thomas issued statements, which were shown on every motion picture screen, setting forth briefly the respective attitudes of the government and the union.

The Premier declared that the government was not engaged in fighting the railway strike, but in preventing an attack against the life of the community. Secretary Thomas declared that the railwaymen were not fighting the community, but against a conspiracy to lower wages.

Women of Archangel Are Buying Poison

Intend to Kill Themselves Rather Than Fall Into Hands of the Reds

Paris.—Chemist shops at Archangel are openly selling poison to many young women who are buying it with the expressed intention of killing themselves rather than fall into the hands of the Bolsheviks, according to a United States officer who has just arrived from Northern Russia.

While several diplomats of Bolsheviks have been deported from Archangel by anti-Bolshevik population refuse to leave, saying it is impossible to go penniless into a strange country.

German Agent Sentenced
New York.—"Count" Max Lynar Louden, a former German agent, who included among his exploits a plot to kidnap President Wilson and invade Canada with 150,000 German revolutionists, was sentenced to three years in Sing Sing prison recently for attempted forgery. The "count" was recently released from the same prison where he has spent his time since April, 1916, serving an indeterminate sentence for bigamy.

British Occupy Odessa
Vienna.—Troops from the British fleet in the Black Sea have been landed in Odessa, and have occupied the city, according to advices received at Budapest.

Huge Stocks Held In Cold Storage

Winnipeg.—There is sufficient butter in cold storage in the warehouses of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company and the William Davies Company to take care of Manitoba's home consumption for nearly five months, reports filed by the managers of the two plants at a recent session of the Board of Commerce food probe revealed.

Gordon W. Shantz, general manager of the Manitoba Cold Storage Company, stated that there are in storage at present 1,367,000 pounds of butter. John MacPherson, manager of William Davies' plant, has 367,878 pounds of butter in storage, making a total of 1,734,878 pounds of butter stored in the two warehouses at present. Both managers declared that this was nothing out of

Notables Marked For Assassination

Testimony Given By Former Military Attache of German Consulate

San Francisco, Cal.—Charles M. Schwab, Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, former British Ambassador to the United States; Lord Fisher, of the British Admiralty; the late Lord Kitchener, and the British vice-consulate at Ensenada, Mexico, were marked for assassination by agents of the German government, according to sworn testimony given by former First Lieutenant Wilhelm von Brincken, formerly military attache of the German consulate in San Francisco, to Commissioner of Immigration Henry M. White, of Seattle, Washington.

A transcript of the statement was received here by Attorney Henry M. Owen, von Brincken's legal adviser in San Francisco. Von Brincken is serving a two-year sentence in the federal penitentiary at McNeil's island for the part he played in the so-called Hindu conspiracy case.

D'Annunzio Aids Regulars

Blockade of Fiume Is More Severe Than Formerly

Rome.—Orders closing the Jugoslav frontier have led to the chief of staff of the 26th Italian regiment army corps at Abbazia to interview Captain D'Annunzio's chief of staff and discuss measures to be taken. This has resulted in the sending of some of Captain D'Annunzio's volunteers to hold the armistice line according to the Epoca, which adds: "The event shows the cordial collaboration between the D'Annunzio troops and the regulars."

The correspondent of the Epoca says the blockade of Fiume is more severe than formerly, even mail being held at the frontier. There is food sufficient for three months for the population of Fiume.

Milk Advances In Toronto

Instead of 15 Tickets for a Dollar Consumer Will Receive Only 13

Toronto.—Under the order of the Board of Commerce, the price of milk will be increased here. Instead of 15 tickets for $1, the consumers will now receive 13 tickets for the same sum, which means an advance of a cent per pint.

The board permitted an increase to the farmer of 45 cents a can, which, upon the basis of consumption of 6,000 cans per day, means an increased income to the farmers of $2,700 a day, or $985,000 per year.

Kolchak's Appeal
Omsk.—Coinciding with the issuance of a decree calling for the convening of a Zemstvo congress, Admiral Kolchak, head of the all-Russian government, made an appeal to the population to drop party struggles and unite around the government.

Custom Receipts
Ottawa.—Customs receipts for the six months of the fiscal year ending September 30 totalled $82,269,212, an increase over the same period last year of $256,323. For the month of September alone receipts totalled $14,813,240, which is $2,756,729 greater than in September, 1918.

Clothing Is Next On Price List

Retailers Will Be Called To Give Evidence

Toronto.—Another sitting of the Board of Commerce will be held here when Judge Robson, chairman, W. F. O'Connor, vice-chairman, and F. A. Acland, deputy minister of labor, will be the commissioners present.

The probe will embrace the retailers' end of the high price of wearing apparel. Retailers will be called to give evidence, and the costs will be worked back to the manufacturer to see where the great spread comes in the prices of all textiles at the present time.

The sitting of the court promises further interest in the fact that the "big five" packers will be on hand to fight to the last ditch the order bringing down the price of wholesale pork products.

Cheap Lignite Coal

Briquet Industry In Southeastern Saskatchewan Would Be Paying Concern

Winnipeg.—That the last problem in the manufacture of briquets in the lignite fields of southeastern Saskatchewan and southwestern Manitoba had been solved, and the last doubt as to the feasibility of the plan had been removed, was the statement of Hon. T. H. Johnson, attorney-general. Mr. Johnson stated that on his recent trip to Ottawa he had been shown over the experimental plant of the lignite utilization commission at Ottawa. The commission, said Mr. Johnson, was proceeding with the plan to produce briquets on a paying basis, and will prove the industry to be a good profit-making business enterprise. These briquets, he said, would be placed on the market in the fall of 1920, and would sell for approximately $10 per ton. They were in every way equal to the American anthracite coal. The commission is being financed by the Federal Government and the Provincial Governments of Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Politics In Luxembourg

Retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte Is Now Quite Certain

Luxembourg.—Balloting in favor of the retention of Grand Duchess Charlotte as ruler, and of the establishment of an economic alliance with France instead of with Belgium, continued to show overwhelming majorities at the start of the second day's count of votes cast in the Plebiscite to determine the future of the Grand Duchy.

The French economic alliance continued to lead in favor by a vote of about 3 to 1. In the count of 14,000 votes, 11,132 were recorded for the Grand Duchess and 2,868 for the republic; 10,071 votes were recorded for an economic alliance with France, and 3,930 for Belgium.

Probably 80,000 votes were cast in all, but 40,000 electors did not vote. Those not voting included the Socialists, whose party ordered abstention. The Socialists claim nearly one-fifth of the electorate.

Hawaiian Volcano Active

Thirty-Mile Stream of Lava Pours Into the Sea

Hilo, Hawaii.—A stream of lava from 800 feet to one mile wide and 30 miles long is pouring from the 13,000-foot crater of the volcano Mauna Loa, across the island from this city, into the sea.

The lava overtopped the crater, and reached the sea nearly 12 hours ahead of the time it had been expected to do so. The eruption of Mauna Loa began four days ago and subsided in violence after a brief duration, only to break forth with new force again. Two ranch homes and other valuable property have been destroyed by the molten rock.

To Change Name of R.N.W.M.P.
Ottawa.—The Northwest Mounted Police is to change its name. In the House Mr. Rowell presented a Bill to amalgamate the Northwest Mounted Police with the Dominion police, to constitute one federal police force. The name of the Northwest Mounted Police will be changed to that of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

Good Roads Construction
Winnipeg.—Authorization for the construction of 277 miles of roads, under the Good Roads Board, is announced. The approximate cost is $676,000. This brings the total mileage to 3,758 at a cost of about $8,219,000, borne equally by the province and municipalities.

Rumanians Seize German Plane

Manned By Four Officers Who Resented Their Arrest

Geneva.—Rumanian troops have seized a big German biplane carrying 300,000,000 paper rubles and a miniature but complete printing press at Iotini, Bessarabia, according to the Rumanian bureau at Bern.

The plane, which was en route to Moscow, was forced to land at Iotini because of a leak in the gasoline tank. It was manned by four German officers, who are said to have resented their arrest. The rubles were all said to have been new notes.

Russian General Must Apologize

For the Arrest of Two United States Officers

Vladivostok.—Maj.-Gen. Graves, commander of the United States forces in Siberia, has demanded an apology from General Roznoff, in command of Russian troops in Primor province, for the arrest of two United States officers, Captain L. P. Johns and Corporal Benjamin Sperry, and the flogging of the latter by Cossacks commanded by General Kalinkoff. An investigation of the conduct of a Japanese officer at Iman, the place where the arrests took place, has also been begun by the Japanese high command. The incident, which occurred September 5, is considered one of the most serious to occur since the allies landed in Siberia. The men were arrested by a detachment of Cossacks, who claimed the Americans were not provided with identification papers.

May Flame Into War

Italian Situation Becoming More of an International Question

Paris.—The inflamed conditions in the Adriatic region and the dissolution of the Italian parliament for the holding of a general election on November 16, as Rome dispatches have announced, is giving the supreme council much concern, in view of the possibility of all the Balkans becoming involved in the turmoil.

In peace conference circles the approaching Italian elections are regarded as a struggle between the war and peace parties, or rather between the forces on the military side and those of socialistic and pacific tendencies, while it appears that D'Annunzio and Fiume would be an issue. The feeling is growing in Paris that D'Annunzio has indicated that his aspirations include far more than Fiume, the Italian situation is daily becoming more of an international question.

The view is expressed here that the agitation might flame into war any day, if, for instance, a Jugoslav should happen to be killed by Italian troops.

U. S. Shipyard Tied Up Now

About 60,000 Men in Grip of Great Industrial Struggle

San Francisco.—Involving approximately 60,000 men, including both skilled and unskilled labor, San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda are in the grip of industrial disturbances which have greatly hampered industry in the entire San Francisco Bay district. Shipyard and iron trades workers, tailors, stevedores, taxi drivers, clerks, street railway employees, ferry boat employees and river signaller men are affected.

The most serious development in the labor situation came when 25,000 shipyard and iron trades workers in Oakland and Alameda and 30,000 in San Francisco, struck. The shipyard and iron workers went out in an effort to force the payment of a wage increase of eight cents per hour.

Union officials say the tie-up of the shipyards is complete. No state money was forthcoming from the California Metal Trades Association.

Fire Wipes Out Town
St. John, N.B.—Oronometo, picturesque and thriving town of Sunbury County, was almost totally destroyed by fire with a property loss of at least $500,000. Fire started in the River Valley's lumber company saw mill, and mill, offices and yards, with about 4,000,000 feet of lumber, were destroyed, together with five stores and several dwelling houses, the lumber company's loss being $200,000.

Spanish Villages Flooded
Madrid.—Araguagante and Liria, villages in the province of Valencia, are reported to have been inundated by floods. The damage is reported heavy.

Adriatic Question Must Be Cleared

French Government Approves International Show

Planned to Bring Producers and Buyers Together

Paris.—An immense project of erecting a huge building on the banks of the Seine in Paris, in which will be held a permanent exhibition designed to bring together the producers and buyers of the world, has found the support of a French financial corporation. The object is to promote commercial intercourse between allied and friendly nations. The building, which will be constructed by the Quai de Passy, will probably cost $200,000,000. There will be held a continuous world's fair. The proposition has the approval of the French authorities. Twelve and a half acres of land have been secured as a site. The structure will have a frontage of 845 feet and a depth of 600 feet. The floor surface will be nearly two and a half million square feet.

Bela Kun Not Wanted

Bolshevist Agitator Has to Be Transferred to Avoid Violence By Populace

Milan.—Bela Kun, who was interned by the Austrian Government at Heideimulh, near Raab, had to be transferred. The inhabitants of the neighboring villages, chiefly peasants, were so exasperated at the presence of the notorious Hungarian Bolshevist director that they held a meeting of protest and threatened to commit violence. The Austrian Peasants' League and the officials of the district also made representations at Vienna, and the government considered it wise to remove the objectionable prisoner. Bela Kun was, without warning, transferred to another habitat, and the locality is kept secret to avoid similar protests.

Sugar Rationing Suggested

Shortage at Calgary Is Acute, and This Idea Is Put Forward

Calgary.—The adoption of the sugar card rationing system used in Britain was advocated here as a solution of the sugar shortage which has become acute, when one of the local dealers at the price probe now being carried on stated that he believed this would be the only possible way of guaranteeing an equitable distribution of what sugar was coming into the city. Some of the wholesalers admitted having received good shipments of sugar. The probe into the sugar situation will conclude here October 2, when other lines of business will be taken up.

Negro Attacks White Woman
Omaha.—Mrs. W. G. Wisner, a white woman, was attacked by a negro in the rear of her home. The negro escaped.

The Wisner home is in the heart of Omaha's "black belt," which is under control of military authorities under the command of Major General Leonard Wood.

Wooden Man to Go
Berlin.—The great wooden von Hindenburg monument, which during the war was studied by the populace with nails, representing so much money, will be demolished, according to the Vossische Zeitung.

Some women are unable to appreciate a gentleman at any stage of the game.

Labor Troubles Due To Russ. Bolsheviks

Too Much Canadian Bacon

So Plentiful That It Is Being Sold To Soapmakers in England

Montreal.—The Herald quotes a man who has just returned from Liverpool as claiming that unrequired Canadian bacon was sent to the soap factories in England. "Canadian bacon is a drug on the market in England," says the Herald's informant. "When I was at Liverpool 2,000 cases of Canadian bacon were going bad on the wharves there. It was sold to Lever Bros. to melt down to soap. Cases of Canadian bacon of 500-pound lot cases sold for 12 1/2 each, or 28 cents for 500 pounds."

Hunger is sure to come to those who sit down and wait.

Washington.—To allow Italy's claim to Fiume, solely on the basis of its forcible occupation by D'Annunzio's irregular troops, in the opinion of members of the supreme council in Paris, would involve recognition by the entente of Rumania's claims in Hungary; Greece's claims to large portions of Turkey, and even possibly Germany's claim to rich portions of Western Russia. It is felt that admission by the council of the right of any nation to seize territory regardless of pledges to refrain from aggression, would be regarded as tantamount to an abandonment of the basic principles upon which the peace conference was assembled and as threatening a permanent peace.

Plans already are being considered, it became known here, to apply through the United States government a termination of the dispute over the Adriatic question, as well as in other cases where trouble has arisen jeopardizing the authority of the supreme council and threatening to set at naught its decisions founded upon powers conferred by the armistice and peace treaty.

Recent advices from Europe are regarded as indicating that some of the entente governments themselves or their representatives, have not fully sustained the council in decisions in which they participated. Unless the Adriatic question is settled satisfactorily within a few days, and there is no disposition to add to the embarrassment of the Italian government if it indicates an intention of taking the Fiume situation in hand, the United States government may consider the advisability of withdrawing for the present at least, any further financial or other material assistance to the other powers unless the council decisions are carried out.

Strike Levels Social Distinction

Aristocrats Load Freight, Drive Engines and Handle Fish

London.—Social lines, which might in the past have been rightly held in England, have broken down during the time being at least, as a result of the railroad strike. A duke was seen driving a motor lorry through the streets, while an earl was in the chauffeur's seat on the motor heading a convoy of fish from Billingsgate. The sixth earl of Port Arlington was among those whose names are found in the social register who were engaged in unloading perishable goods, milk and churns from a train. Frederick Henry Smith, son and heir of Baron Colwen, was the fireman on the Liverpool-London express when it rolled into this city.

H.B. Railway Is Slowly Decaying
The Pas, Man.—The elements and neglect are slowly crumbling the terminals of the Hudson's Bay Railway at Port Nelson, according to Captain R. H. Taylor, of the mounted police patrol boat, who has just arrived here from the bay. He declared that the roadbed of the railway itself, from Mile 214 is rapidly going to pieces, and all along telegraph poles are lying on the ground. The terminal shops, he said, are lying in a state of rust and decay.

Some women are unable to appreciate a gentleman at any stage of the game.

Labor Troubles Due To Russ. Bolsheviks

St. Louis, Mo.—Warning that if Germany is permitted to continue her "frenzied operations" in Russia, in ten years she would become as powerful as before the war, David R. Francis, American ambassador to Russia, talking before the convention of the American Bankers' Association, said the real solution of industrial unrest in Russia and the United States is in the peace treaty. He urged immediate ratification of the League of Nations.

He charged that the Brest-Litovsk treaty was arranged by Lenin with Germany, and that Lenin and Trotsky were German agents. Labor troubles all over the world emanated from Russia, he said, and said it was impossible to establish peace in Europe while the Bolsheviks reigned in Russia.

Statistics show that nearly 75 per cent of fires start from preventable causes and it is to offset these causes that necessitated this proclamation.

Economy: IN FARM BUILDINGS

TO GET THE LEAST WALL AREA—TO SAVE BUILDING MATERIAL—TO SAVE IN COST OF CONSTRUCTION—TO REDUCE HEAT LOST THRU WALLS

Are all considerations of Economy

Sometimes too little money is invested in farm buildings, in which case undue labor is required in taking care of the stock. Work is often done at a great disadvantage, to save a few dollars when the buildings are being constructed.

Plank Frame Barns—using nothing heavier than 2-inch plank—cost less to build and are becoming very popular. The principal reasons for this are, that his method saves in cost of lumber and provides for more storage room in the hay loft.

How the last
Victory Loan
was spent

For Demobilization

For Trade
Extension

BEFORE buying Victory Bonds again you may want to know how Canada used the money you loaned her last year

Canada borrowed the money to carry on the war and to provide credits for Great Britain and our Allies

CONSIDERABLY more than one-half of the Victory Loan 1918 was spent on our soldiers. This included $312,900,000 for paying them feeding them bringing them home, separation allowances to their dependents, maintenance of medical services and vocational training schools

$59,000,000 of the Victory Loan 1918 was paid on account of authorized Soldiers' gratuities

$9,000,000 was spent at Halifax for relief and reconstruction after the disaster

* * * * *

Other disbursements were not strictly speaking expenditures, but National Re-investments

To Great Britain for example.

$173,500,000 was loaned for the purchase of our wheat and cereals.

$9,000,000 for our fish.

$30,000,000 for other Foodstuffs

$2,900,000 for Canadian built ships

$5,500,000 to pay other British obligations in Canada.

Making in all $220,900,000 advanced to Great Britain

To our Allies, we loaned $8,200,000 for the purchase of Canadian foodstuffs, raw material and manufactured products

The Re-investments will be paid back to Canada in due time, with interest

These credits were absolutely necessary to secure the orders for Canada because cash purchases were impossible

They have had the effect of tremendously helping agricultural and industrial workers to tide over the depression that would have followed the Armistice, had we not made these credit loans

As far as money is concerned, 1919 has been, and is still—just as much a war year as 1918. Our main expenditures for war cannot be completed until well on into 1920. Thus another Victory Loan is necessary—Get ready to buy.

VIKING

The Wainwright public school in connection with several of the rural district schools held a field meet and competition at Wainwright last Friday. An invitation was extended the Viking school basketball team to meet the Wainwright basketball-shooters which was accepted and the team went down to Wainwright between trains and gave them a run for the honors which proved the most interesting event on the program. The first half of the game Wainwright led by 10 to 2, but our girls made a remarkable showing in the second half and nearly evened the score, Wainwright winning by the narrow margin of one point, 10 to 9. For Viking, Vivian Stocum and Irene O'Leary played at forward and their basket shooting in the second half was a feature. At centre positions, Algine Harris and Inez Verner made things interesting for their opponents, and as guards, Jeanette Stevens and Palma Berg saved many a basket by their good defensive work. The Wainwright team was composed of six very energetic and capable girls, Helen Connor and Sophy Kenny at forward, Jackie Mabey and Effie Murray at centre, and Dicky Bayley and Helene Ackroyd at guard. Miss Kenny played a star game at forward, her basket throwing being very accurate, and Miss Connor made a good team mate. Little Effie Murray in centre was as busy as a bee, believe me, and lost no time when the ball was in reach. Jackie Murray ran her a close second. Helene Ackroyd and Dicky Bayley, at guard, had our forwards baffled in the first half and their aggressiveness in the second half saved the game for Wainwright.

After the game the visitors were treated to a delicious lunch served in the school by the teaching staff and high school pupils after which all were taken in motor cars to the fair grounds where field events took place.

Proportional Representation —No. 2

In last week's article on the above subject some of the inequalities of our present system of electing representatives to public office were pointed out, the growth of the P.R. method of election noted, and one or two principles underlying that method outlined. In conclusion it was stated that an endeavor would be made to explain the method of voting and election in this week's article.

First of all, let it be repeated and emphasized that it is the essence of representative government that every voter should be represented in the representative assembly. If a considerable proportion of the electorate come to feel that they have no voice in the Government, the distance is short to that dangerous state of mind which regards political processes as futile and hopeless. The world today, Canada included, requires to guard against this.

The theory of Proportional Representation is that each considerable party or group of opinion should be represented in parliament, or legislature, or municipal council, in proportion to its voting strength—that parties may rule and minorities be heard. How does Proportional Representation put this theory into practice? The method used is what is known as the transferable vote.

When the ballot with the list of candidates for an office, say a municipal council, is presented, the elector, instead of marking "X" after his choice, or choices if more than one is to be elected, as at present, votes as follows:

(a) By placing the figure 1 after his favorite candidate. The voter may also:

(b) Place the figure 2 opposite his second choice;

(c) Place the figure 3 after his third choice, and so on, numbering as many candidates as he pleases in the order of his preference, and may even so indicate his preference for a larger number of candidates than are actually to be elected.

A candidate, to ensure election, need not poll a majority, but only a certain proportion of the votes cast, called a quota. This quota is the smallest number of votes required to ensure election. For example, in a constituency electing only one member, it is not necessary even now that a candidate should poll all the votes; if he obtains one more than half he secures a majority and is elected, because no one else can poll so many. Similarly, under P.R. it would be necessary in a one-member constituency for the candidate elected to secure a clear majority. In a two-member constituency, a candidate who obtains one more than a third would be elected, for only two candidates can each poll more than a third. If three members are to be elected, it would take one more vote than a fourth of the votes cast to ensure election.

This quota necessary to election is, therefore, found by dividing the total number of votes cast by one more than the number of representatives to be elected and adding one. For example, assuming that there are three candidates to be elected, and the total vote cast was 620. The latter figure divided by four (that is, one more than the number to be elected), gives 155, and this, plus one, gives 156, which would be the quota, and as not more than three candidates could secure that number, regardless of how many might be in the field, those three would be elected.

The next question is: How are the votes counted and transferred?

(a) The first preference votes obtained by each candidate are noted—that is, the candidates opposite whose names the figure 1 has been marked by the voters.

(b) The quota is ascertained in the manner outlined above.

(c) Candidates, if any, who have received the quota, or more than the quota, are declared elected.

(d) Surplus votes of those candidates who have received more than their quota are transferred, in strict proportion, to the unelected candidates indicated as the next preferences by the voters (that is, candidates having the figure 2 opposite their names).

(e) Any further candidates who, as the result of such transfer of second preferences, have received the necessary quota are declared elected.

(f) The candidates lowest on the poll are then eliminated one after another, and the votes they receive are transferred in accordance with the next choice of the electors indicated thereon. This process is continued until the required number of candidates have obtained a quota, or the number of candidates not eliminated is reduced to the number of seats vacant.

It will be seen, therefore, that whereas under our present system the voter who marks a ballot for a candidate who is at the foot of the poll completely loses his representation in the public body for which the election is held, under Proportional Representation he, having failed to secure the election of his first choice, has his ballot transferred to his second choice; if his second choice fails of election, his vote is transferred to his third choice, and so on. Thus every voter, in the final analysis, is represented by a representative for whom he records a preference. Surely, a more democratic and fairer way than obtains under our present system.

(Next week some examples of how P.R. has worked out where it has been tried will be given, and possibly some of the objections raised against P.R. answered.)

Germany's New Escutcheon
Berlin.—Germany has a new escutcheon, from which the Hohenzollern arms have been eliminated. It consists of a black one-headed eagle on a gold field. The "new" eagle, which has shed its erstwhile imperial crown and collar, is not a rampant bird and would look sedate enough in its sitting posture but for the color of its beak, tongue and talons, which are red.

Boycott Hits Japan

China Willing to Give Us Trade If Ship Are Provided

According to the Japanese newspaper, Nichi Nichi, the Chinese boycott on anything made in Japan is having its effect on Japanese trade. The paper estimates that Chinese imports from Japan have dropped 70 per cent to 80 per cent since the boycott began early this year. Exports to Japan were: April, 26,840,000 yen; May, 25,670,000 yen; June, 19,860,000 yen.

The statement is made in "China" that if the United States and Canada put more ships on the Pacific they can get the trade that China formerly gave to Japan.

Cannot Visit Mexico

British Citizens Cannot Now Enter Mexico, According to Regulation

Washington.—British citizens desiring to visit Mexico for the first time cannot get their passports vised, under instructions which Ambassador Bonillas said he had sent to the Mexican consuls. British subjects resident in Mexico, or who have resided there, were not affected, he said.

The ambassador did not know why his government had taken this step, but pointed out that the British Government had refused to give passports for Mexicans desiring to go to Europe, when they had to pass through England. Heretofore, the entry of British subjects into Mexico had been permitted, providing they signed an agreement absolving the Mexican Government from liability for any "accident" they might sustain.

Doukhobors May Move

Verigin Says Sect May Migrate to South America

Regina, Sask.—That it is quite possible the Doukhobors in Canada will move to fresh pastures, was the statement made here by Peter Verigin, the leader of the sect. The Doukhobors own a lot of land in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, the largest colony being in the latter province.

If the land holdings could be disposed of, said Mr. Verigin, it would be easy to move, and South America would likely be their choice of a new home.

Chain of Imperial Aerodromes

London.—Right Hon. Mr. Weir, at a public welcome to the crew of the R-34 at Glasgow, stated that he looked forward to the time when there would be a chain of imperial aerodromes linking the main units of the Empire and connected by auxiliary services to the smaller nations. He said that he had great faith in the usefulness of coastal flying boats, as proposed in connection with Australian and West Indian coastal services. Military reasons, he stated, required the linking up of the Empire by definite routes, largely coinciding with the commercial routes. He deprecated the government action in monopolizing civil aviation, and anticipated great results from the rivalry of private firms.

Sir Robert Home stated that the public had not yet realized the remarkable war work accomplished by the airships. The Admiralty had started with eight and finished with a hundred—beating the Germans.

Regulate Cold Storage

Washington.—Federal regulation of cold storage as an aid in reducing the cost of living was agreed to by the house agriculture committee, as recommended by the President in his address on the high cost of living. The committee reported a bill limiting the time that food may be held in storage to twelve months, and providing that cold storage food must be plainly marked.

Keeping Fit

BY DR. SAMUEL HAMILTON.

It is because of the war that the perfect physical man has all at once become the idol of the world. You can make of yourself, even rather late in life, almost anything you like. You are not going to get fit in one day, one month, or, perhaps, a year, unless you take enough outdoor exercise to keep the circulation going and practise the athlete's first principle—to keep the system clean. He does not give his body a chance to absorb poisons. He not only takes his cold shower, after exercise, but he knows a cleansing of the intestines is important, and he takes occasionally a good regulator and liver cleanser, such as a dose of castor oil, or, what is much better, a tiny pill made up of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and sold by almost all druggists in the land as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Keep the kidneys in good order also. Avoid too much meat, alcohol or tea. Drink plenty of pure water, preferably hot water, before meals, and drive the uric acid out of the system by taking "Anuric" (anti-uric acid). This can be obtained at almost any drug store.

Send a bottle of water to the chemist at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and you will receive free medical advice as to whether the kidneys are affected. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headaches, dizzy spells, or twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism or gout; or sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. Take heed, before too late! Get Anuric (anti-uric acid), for it will put new life into your kidneys and your entire system. Ask your nearest druggist for it or send Dr. Pierce ten cents for trial package of "Anuric."

Explorer Finds Buried Village

Eighty Well-Preserved Frozen Bodies Were Found

Nome, Alaska.—Discovery of an ancient buried Eskimo village near Point Barrow, the "corner of the continent," was made recently by W. B. Van Valin, who has arrived here on his way to the States after spending nearly two years in the Borro country for the University of Pennsylvania museum, gathering relics of what has been termed the "stone age" of the natives of far northwest Alaska.

Eighty well-preserved frozen bodies were found in the village, Van Valin reported. Their clothing and the shape of their heads and other parts of their bodies differed from the clothing and bodies of the present day Eskimos. Remains of several of the Eskimos were shipped by Van Valin to the museum.

Evidently the ancient village was overtaken by some catastrophe, it is believed. None of the present natives of the Borro section knew of the existence of the lost village.

When a man has lost ambition to "dig in" and stay at things—when he complains of headache, fullness in the right side, pains in the shoulder blade—this is purely a case of "Liver." These symptoms invariably indicate a clogged, inactive liver. The body can't get rid of its wastes, and the whole system is half paralyzed. Dr. Hamilton's Pills stimulate the liver into activity in one night, bring a mild vegetable laxative, they produce results in a few hours. Bile headache and constipation are cured, spirits rise, complexion clears, animation returns. Nothing in the calendar so efficient for that tired, lazy feeling as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Very mild, don't interfere with work, invariably do lots of good. Try a 25c box, all dealers.

"That is a good thought," agreed Mr. Duncan, "but not a conclusive one. In reckoning the happiness a man gives we must, of course, subtract the unhappiness he occasions. He may make a great sum of money, and use much of it in creating happiness, but if in the making of the money he used methods that resulted in unhappiness, we must subtract the unhappiness first before we can give him any credit for the happiness he has created. And I am disposed to think that many a philanthropist, if weighed in that balance, would be found to have a debit side bigger than his credit. No matter how much wealth a man may possess, or how wisely he may distribute it, we can not credit him with success if he has oppressed the hiredling or dealt unfairly with his competitors or the public. Such a man is not a success; he is a failure. In his own soul he knows he is a failure, that is, provided he still has a soul, and if not, as I said before, he is a greater failure still."

Out of this discussion Mr. Duncan evolved the copy line, "The success of a life is in direct proportion to its net contribution to human happiness," and Dave sat writing it far into the night. As soon as Dave had learned to read a little Mr. Duncan took him one day to the public library, and the young man groped in amazement up and down the great rows of books. Presently a strange sense of inadequateness came over him. "I can never read all of those books, nor half of them," he said. "I suppose one must read them in order to be well informed."

Mr. Duncan appeared to change the subject. "You like fruit?" he asked.

"Yes, of course. Why?"

"When you go into a fruit store do you stand and spy, 'I can never eat all of that fruit; crates and crates of' and carloads more in the warehouse? Of course you don't. You eat enough for the good of your system, and let it go at that. Now, just apply the same sense to your reading. Read enough to keep your mind fresh and alert, and vigorous; give it one new thought to wrestle with every day, and let the rest go."

"Oh, I know that there is a certain school which holds that unless you have read this author or that author, or this book or that book, you are hopelessly uninformed or behind the times. That's literary snobbery. Let them talk. A mind that consumes more than it can assimilate is morally on a par with a stomach that swallows more than it can digest. Gluttons, both of them. Read as much as you can think about, and no more. The trouble with many of our people is that they do not read to think, but to save themselves the trouble of thinking. The mind, left to itself, insists upon activity. So they deteriorate it."

Mr. Duncan also took occasion to speak with Dave about his religious views. He did not forget Dave's explanation of why he went out of the church. "I sympathize with your point of view a great deal," he said, "but don't be too sweeping in your conclusions. The church is too fuzzy on details; too anxious to fit the mind of man—which is his link with the Infinite—into some narrow, soul-crushing creed, too insistent upon the form of belief and not nearly insistent enough upon conduct. It makes me think of a man who was trying to sell me an automobile the other day. He was explaining all about the trimmings, the cushions and the lights and the horn and all that sort of stuff, and when he was through I said, 'Now tell me something about the motor. I want to know about the thing that makes the wheels go round. If it's no good I guess the trimmings are only fit for junk.' Well, the way with the church. The motor that has kept it running for nineteen centuries is the doctrine of love; love of man to man, love of man to God, love of God to man. Nothing about wrath—that's only a back-fire—but love. Without that motor all the trimmings are junk. Each sect has its own trimmings, but they all profess to use the same motor."

Still, the motor is all right, even if it is neglected and abused. I don't think you'll find a better, and you must have power of some kind."

"What about Socialism?" asked Dave.

"Very good, insofar as it is constructive. But there is a destructive brand of Socialism which attacks the fancy of disappointed and disgruntled men and women, and bids them destroy. There is a basic quality in all human nature which clamors for destruction. You see it in the child pulling his toys to pieces, or in the mob wrecking buildings. Destruction is easy and passionate, but constructive is slow and patient."

"I have been at some of their meetings," said Dave. "They lay great stress on the war between Labor and Capital."

"Between husband and wife in the family of production," interrupted Mr. Duncan. "Nothing is to be gained by that quarrel. I admit the husband has been overbearing, offensive, brutal, perhaps, but the wife has been slovenly, inefficient, shallow. Neither has yet been brought to realize how hopeless is the case of one without the other. And I don't think they will learn that by quarreling. What they need is not hard words, but mutual respect and sympathy, and an honest recognition of what constitutes success. Doctrines and policies are helpful to the extent to which they cause men to think, either directly or by creating environment conducive to thought; but they will never bring the golden age of happiness. That can come only through the destruction of selfishness, which can be destroyed only by the power of love. That is why I emphasized the motor in our talk about the church. It is our only chance."

Dave's talks with Mr. Duncan became almost nightly occurrences, either at the Duncan home, or where he drove the family—for the master of the house often accompanied them when they met down town, as frequently happened. And the boy was not slow to realize the broad nature of the task to which Mr. Duncan had set himself. His education was to be built of every knowledge and experience that could go into the rounding of a well-developed life.

The climax seemed to be reached when Mr. Duncan invited Dave to accompany him to a dinner at which a noted thinker, just crossing the continent, had consented to speak.

"It will be evening dress," said Mr. Duncan. "I suppose you are hardly fitted out that way?"

"I guess not," said Dave, smiling broadly. He recalled the half-humorous sarcasm with which the Metford gang referred to any who might be seen abroad in their "Hercford fronts." He had a sudden vision of himself running the gauntlet of the ridicule.

But Mr. Duncan was continuing. "I think I can fix you up," he said. "We must be pretty nearly of a size, and I have a spare suit." And almost before he knew it it was arranged that Dave should attend the dinner.

It was an eventful night for him. His shyness soon wore off, for during these months he had been learning to accept any new experience gladly. "Life is made up of experience," his teacher had said, "therefore welcome every opportunity to broaden your life by travelling in new tracks. There are just two restrictions—the injurious and the immoral. You must grow by experience, but be sure you grow the right way. Only a fool must personally seize the red iron to see if it will burn. . . . But most of us are fools." And as he sat among this company of the best minds of the town he felt that a new and very real world was opening before him. His good clothes seemed to work up in some way through his sub-consciousness and give him a sense of capability. He was in the mental atmosphere of men who did things, and by conforming to their customs he had brought his mind into harmony with theirs, so that it could receive suggestions, and—who knows?—return suggestions. And he was made to think, think.

As he walked home with Mr. Duncan under the stars he spoke of the subtle sense of well-being and ability which came with good clothes. "I don't mind confessing I have always had something like contempt for stylish dressing," he said. "Now I almost feel that there's something to it."

"There is some good quality in everything that survives," said Mr. Duncan. "Otherwise it would not survive. That doesn't mean, of course, that the good qualities outweigh the bad, but the good must be there. Take the use of liquor, for instance; perhaps the greatest source of misery we have. Yet it touches a quality in man's life: sociability, conviviality, if you like; but a quality that has virtue in it none the less. And the errors of sex are so often linked with love that we can scarcely say where virtue ceases and where vice begins. I know convention placards them plainly enough, but convention does not make virtue vice, nor vice virtue. There are deeper laws down beneath, and sometimes they may set at defiance all accepted codes."

"Yet I would not quarrel with the accepted codes—until I knew I had something better. Accepted codes represent man's net progress through experience to truth. The code, for instance, 'Thou shalt not kill,' we accept it in general, but not completely. The State does not hesitate to kill in self-defence, or even to carry out purposes which have no relation to defence. And shall we not allow similar exceptions to the other codes? And yet, although we may find our codes are not infallible, are they not still the best guides we have?"

"To return to clothes. Clothes won't make you, but they will help you to make yourself. Only, don't become a clothes-tripper. You can run into intoxication on fine raiment as well as on fine wines. It has a virtue in it, but just beyond the virtue lies the vice."

CHAPTER EIGHT.

The summer was not far gone when Dave, through an introduction furnished by Mr. Duncan, got a new job. It was in the warehouse of a wholesale grocery, trundling cases and sacks of merchandise. It was cleaner than handling coal, and the wages were better—fifty dollars a month, to begin.

"The first thing is to get out of the dead-line," said Mr. Duncan. "I am not hoping that you will have found destiny in a wholesale warehouse, but you must get out of the dead-line. As long as you shovel coal you will shovel coal. And you are not capable of anything better until you think you are."

"But I've liked it pretty well," said Dave. "As long as I was just working for my wages it was dull going, but it was different after I got to see that even shovelling coal was worth while. I suppose it is the same with groceries, or whatever one does. As soon as you begin to study what you handle the work loses its drudgery. It isn't a man's job that makes him sick of his job; it's what he thinks of his job."

The Lone Match

An Experience Which Befell King Edward

The Prince of Wales has had many strange experiences on his Canadian travels, but it is hardly likely that he will be called upon to endure such a terrible ordeal as befell his grandfather during his sojourn in Canada. One day, when crossing the prairies, he produced a cigar, and his companions followed suit. "A match, please," he requested, whereupon it was discovered that there was but one match among the whole party. Wind was tearing across the prairie, and lots were cast to determine who should attempt to keep the solitary, precious match alight. To his dismay the lot fell upon King Edward, then Prince of Wales. He lay on the ground, and his companions gathered round and stretched their coats for shelter. The match was lit—go wags all the cigars. But seldom before or after, King Edward used to say, did he feel so nervous as at the moment of striking that match.

It is easier to mend a broken heart than a broken head.

Aerial Development

Feasibility of Establishing Fast Mail Service Between Canadian and American Cities

The possibilities of aerial development are beyond those of all other means of communication and transportation now known to man. During the international race, which has as its primary object proof as to the feasibility of establishing a fast mail service between several Canadian and American cities, letters and newspapers travelled from New York to Toronto or vice versa in a very few hours. What the ultimate establishment of a regular service of this kind, which could be maintained with reasonable certainty for several months in the year, would mean to the business interests of both communities is impossible of estimation at this time. In Britain, where the airplane is in study use for commercial purposes, including a passenger and mail schedule from London to Paris; the benefits of the air route have been proven beyond all possibility of discussion. The development there is continuing with a breadth of vision and a rapidity that show to what extent the British people regard the importance of aerial leadership in every phase of its application to modern conditions.

The international contest, which has had its advertising value for Toronto, and Canada generally, as well as for the Canadian National Exhibition, has rather emphasized the reliability of the airplane as well as its adaptability for the services of peace.—From the Toronto Globe.

Comet Approaching Earth

Cambridge, Massachusetts. — The comet discovered recently by Dr. Joel H. Metcalf, of the Harvard Observatory, will become visible to the naked eye within a short time. It is now of the eighth magnitude, but on October 16 will be four times brighter and about 44,000,000 miles from the earth. It is now near the sun, and its course will take it close to the polar star.

The weight of the transgressor is invariably light.

How Long Can They Do It?

What Is the True Relation of Cost of Revenue in Government Operation of Roads

There is in Canada current opinion that it costs the Government $1.03 to get $1 gross revenue from the railroads which have been emancipated from the capitalistic class. A deficit of $500,000 in 1919 is the forecast. This straightway gives rise to conjecture as to what the true relation of cost and revenue would be if some courageous administration reached down to the bottom of our Government operation of the roads.

Thanks in part to the peculiarities of the Canadian situation, the private Grand Trunk and Canadian Pacific have contributed nobly to the Government's experiment in railroad operation. This and other causes have steadily lifted the percentage of cost to gross revenue. Today it is 89 per cent. for the Grand Trunk and 81 per cent. for the Canadian Pacific. The percentage thus actually discloses the shocking scandal of surplus, rather than the uplifting inspiration of deficit.

Monthly statements, duly audited and certified, show Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk can still operate on their own motive power. The exact status of the government roads is not so clearly revealed. Why it is not is a matter of conjecture, friendly, invidious or neutral, as may be. Some irreconcilables want to know how they are to reach a conclusive audit of Canadian Northern, making a true capital investment basis for figures. Others say there is an operating deficit of more than three per cent.

What if it be so that the more wheels turn round and the faster they go, the more money they lose. If it costs 3 cents net loss to take in a dollar, isn't the taxpayer there to pay it? And doesn't the paltry 3 cents go at once back into circulation? "As long as he has a dollar left to burn, why shouldn't the taxpayer write and turn?"

A staunch supporter of a western co-operative grain concern with a long and honorable record of losses used to refer to its "turnover" as its saviour. Happily free of the embarrassment of literary cult, he has given the government's railroad auditors a book—candid, accurate and novel. They should be satisfied, and so should the taxpayers. For, as a facetious inquirer for Government figures says: "If a taxpayer is not to pay these taxes, what is he for? But how long can they do it?" — Wall Street Journal.

To Ensure Coal Supply

Washington.—The British Embassy has informed the state department that owing to the railroad strike in England, the supply of bunker coal at Gibraltar, Malta, Egypt, Sierra Leone and British coaling stations in the Atlantic probably will be restricted for the present to outward bound British vessels.

Closing of some of the principal ports of the United Kingdom, also probably will be necessary during the strike, it was said, in order to prevent congestion, while an order holding all British vessels bound for the British Isles either in the leading ports or at a port of call, was said to be imminent.

D'Annunzio's Message To The Venetians

Urging Them to Throw Off the Shameful Yoke

Rome, Italy. — Papers in Venice publish a message from Capt. Gabriele d'Annunzio to Venetians invoking their aid and urging them to throw off the shameful yoke. Captain d'Annunzio declares: "I am absolute master of Fiume. The victorious army, reprimanded in its own country, is reconstituting itself around me, is being consolidated, and is triumphant. I shall remain at Fiume in face of all. We shall build at Fiume a new country."

Rome papers express regret at the message, which, they state, aims at destroying the unity and discipline of the state. According to the Tribune, Prince Aimon, son of Duc d'Aosta, is at Fiume, as is also Commandant Rizzo.
